D10 Trust in federal government

People have different ideas about how much they can trust government to do what is right. These ideas don't refer to Democrats or Republicans in particular, but just to the government in general. We want to see how you feel about this for each of the levels of government.

How much of the time do you think you can trust the federal government in Washington to do what is right -- nearly always or most of the time, some of the time, seldom, or almost never?

prA3 2008 presidential election: race your party (version 1)

Between now and the 2008 political conventions, there will be a lot of talk about the presidential candidate's qualifications, for example their education, age, religion, and race.

If your party nominated a well-qualified person for president who happened to be Black how likely is it that you would vote for that person?

(Would you be very likely, somewhat likely, somewhat unlikely, or very unlikely?)
